

MEDIATION INFORMATION

PRIVACY: Your privacy and confidentiality will be honored.

TO REQUEST A MEDIATION DATE AND TIME: Please send a message using the Contact Form.

THINGS TO CONSIDER WHEN ENGAGING IN MEDIATION:

What issues would you like to address?

Have you or the other party taken any action on this? For example are you under a court order or have had a hearing or mediation?

How soon do you need this completed?

Are there any barriers to completing this quickly? Such as physical impairment, uncertainty about what you want to do, children involved, etc.

Briefly describe what you want to accomplish:

What dates work for you, generally? For example, weekday mornings or afternoons.

Are there specific dates and times you would like to schedule?

Do you know what dates work for the other party(ies), generally? For example, weekday mornings or afternoons?
Are there specific dates and times s/he would like to schedule?

How would you like to be contacted? By phone or e-mail? Can this be accomplished confidentially?

For family matters only:

What does this involve? For example, dissolution of marriage, disagreement about terms of a divorce decree, obtaining or dividing property, child support, parenting issues, etc..

Has there been a divorce? When and where did it occur?

Are there children and what are their ages?

Remember: Available times and dates change. If you want to get this scheduled, be sure to prioritize this matter and follow through.
